

POSITION DESCRIPTION AND REQUIREMENTS OF TRAINEE CANDIDATE
Business Type	International Public Relations Firm
Location	Manhattan, New York
Length of Placement	6 Month+
Salary	Unpaid
Housing	Housing is not provided although employer will help search
Position Description	Training will be focused on business development, increasing client base, conducting media research. Candidates will be responsible for developing content lists, conducting research on potential international clients, event planning and logistics. Candidates will also be involved in writing press releases, pitching the firm's services to new clients, handling media communications.
Requirements	Must have previous public relations work experience, outstanding English communication skills. Educational background in public relations is preferred but not required